Appomattox Students Compete in State Special Olympics

Twenty-three students from Appomattox County competed in the State Track and Field Special Olympics. The students left Friday afternoon from ACHS to participate in the events held June 23rd at the University in Charlottesville.

Friday evening the athletes ate dinner in a UVA cafeteria. After dinner, athletes from all over Virginia took part in the opening ceremonies. The athletes were entertained by a clown show. The athletes then danced at a huge disco party.

Saturday the students competed with other athletes in the 50-yard dash, the standing long jump, and the softball throw. We can be proud of these students who brought home fifteen first place gold medals, nine second place silver medals, six third place bronze medals, one fourth place ribbon , and one fifth place ribbon.

Congratulations, athletes!

An apology must go to the athletes who, because of poor scheduling and delays in starting times, were not able to compete in all of their events.

A very special thank you goes to Ronald Reed. He is a valuable member of the team and gave us much help on this trip.

Sincere thanks also go to the chaperones: Bea Hudson, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Reed, Lisa Reed, Nancy Goodman, Patricia Elder, Donna Lloyd, Steven Anderson, and Lauri Harwood. These people had to deal with many unexpected problems and were of invaluable assistance.

Pack 546 Competed in Cub Scout Olympics

On Sunday, May 20th, Pack 546 competed against eight other packs in the Central District Cub Scout Olympics held in Lynchburg. There were ten events that the cubs could enter. The more events a boy entered, the more points he could earn for himself and his pack. Appomattox was well represented with eleven boys participating in all ten events.

Because of the boys enthusiasm and sportsmanship, they were able to win both of the two trophies that were presented for the day. Many of the boys won first, second, and third place ribbons for individual events which added up to give the pack the highest score for the Decathlon Pack Winner. The Decathlon Cub Winner was Thad Shumaker, who scored the most individual total points. Each cub received a certificate of participation for their outstanding effort in an all out team showing. Those cub scouts were: Joe Servis, Shawn Walker, Thad Shumaker, Stephan Moore, Jay Stubblefield, Denny Drinkard, Kevin Armentrout, Lloyd Wesley, Robbie Mongold, Matt Servis and Zane Summers.
